PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the late summer and early fall in South Dakota are seasons of unrivalled beauty when the infinite variety of our land is at its most inviting, when there is a special splendor on the plains and prairies, in the Badlands and Black Hills, and through the lake country; and

WHEREAS, there is a wide range of activities scheduled by our communities which are of interest to all our citizens in addition to the enjoyment of natural attractions and outdoor sports; and

WHEREAS, vacations during this period offer a needed respite between the arduous work of the summer and the preparation for the fall harvests; and

WHEREAS, the face of our state has changed enormously within a short time in that great dams are making lakes of once turbulent rivers, that new highways have been opened making travel safer and more enjoyable and convenient, and that progress of a substantial sort has been recorded in all our communities; and

WHEREAS, the Centennial year of the Dakota Territory is drawing to a close, and the many historic sites and monuments have an especial significance when visited this year;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, GOVERNOR, proclaim the month of September as

and urge that our citizens and those of our neighboring states take the opportunity this month to see and enjoy the unlimited recreational facilities South Dakota has to offer.
